2005 TAIA Regional Meetings

The 2005 TAIA Regional Meetings are coming to a close for another year. The meetings have been very well attended and the planning committees put together a great group of topics with a superb group of presenters. TAIA would like to thank all those who have attended and supported the regional meetings, and I hope everyone gained information that can be put to use in his/her employment. Those attending have also been great supporters of the raffle for our scholarship program. Raffle sales have been successful at all the regional meetings. An extremely big thank you to the Regional Meeting Sponsors. Through generosity of the sponsors TAIA is able to keep the registration cost to members at a reasonable price and furnish a meal with the meetings. TAIA again thanks everyone involved with the regional meetings.

TAIA Planning Meeting at ARA Conference & Exposition

TAIA has set up Monday, November 28, 2005 at 1:00 P.M. to have a 2006 Planning Meeting at the ARA Conference and Exposition. We hope you will be able to join a group of TAIA Members who will continue work on our plans for 2006. This will be a great time for those attending the ARA Convention to do planning for TAIA before all the activities of the ARA Conference and Exposition get underway. Details of the ARA meeting can be found on page 2. I hope you will try to be part of this 2006 TAIA Planning Meeting .

The Texas Ag Line is published by CHB Consulting, Inc. for the Texas Ag Industries Assn.

I consider myself a positive person and that is the way I will approach this article. We all know too well the negatives in the market place. I see four things I want to point out that are positive in our industry.

Due to the high price of fuel we have seen a bill pass which gives strong biofuels tax provisions that will enhance the production and use of ethanol and biodiesel and ensure a continued role for small, farmer owned biofuels productions facilities. Two such plants are planned for the High Plains of Texas. The estimate is that ethanol plants will consume the entire corn production of the High Plains. We could also see a biodiesel plant built on the High Plains. This will lead to expanded use of our agricultural products and by-products.

The cattle market continues to be the bright spot. Earlier I had estimated the calf price, directly off the cow, would be $625/ head. We now can see the end of the marketing year, and I will stay with my estimate. Another good year for the cattle market, and it appears 2006 will follow suit.

It has been said, "the cure for high prices is high prices" This analogy could come true with the fertilizer market. New production (foreign) is coming on stream and demand may not keep pace. Thus we could see cheaper fertilizer prices in the face of higher domestic natural gas prices.

New technologies in both seed and chemicals have increased yields thus helping to off set the higher cost of production. I believe the door is open for higher yields in the near future.

It appears to me we still need help to be competitive in the world market. I would ask you to lend your support to the TAIA so we can better represent Agriculture to our legislators.

Thanks,

Zandy Goode

2005 ARA Conference & Exposition

The Agricultural Retailers Association will hold its 2005 Conference and Exposition on November 28 - 30, 2005 at the Renaissance Worthington Hotel in Fort Worth, Texas. The theme for this year's conference is Changing the Rules - The Way to a Competitive Edge.

The conference will offer many exciting events including:

Cutting-edge sessions that will discuss broad business strategies, such as your customer's wants and needs, how to distinguish your company from the competition, the effects of rising North American natural gas prices on the fertilizer industry, and emerging trends. Attendees will learn how retailers can step it up to meet the challenges of competing with manufacturers that sell directly to growers, and two panels - a retail and a transportation - will discuss pertinent topics as they relate to their respective segments.

Network with more than 400 retailers and distributors - More that 60 exhibitors - NASCAR event

To register for the ARA Conference & Exposition you can contact the ARA at 1156 15th Street, Suite 302, Washington, DC 20005, call ARA at 202/457-0864, or go to the ARA web site at www.aradc.org and register online. You can download additional registration materials and view the most up-to-date information about the conference, travel and hotel logistics.

TAIA 2005 Summer Meeting

TAIA held its 2005 Summer Meeting August 1 & 2 at the Del Lago Resort on Lake Conroe near Montgomery, Texas. The Summer Meeting kicked off with a Welcome Reception on Sunday night followed by a full day of committee meetings on Monday. The Summer Meeting Reception was held on Monday night. Both Sunday and Monday nights were highlighted by boat rides on the lake. Clay Petrus volunteered his boat, which held about thirty people, to give these enjoyable boat rides around the lake. TAIA would like to thank Clay for volunteering his boat and United Agri Products for sponsoring the outing.

The TAIA Board Meeting was held Tuesday morning at which where all the committees reported on their committee meetings and the board handled the general business of TAIA. The committees set up plans for the TAIA 2006 Annual Convention to be held in Fort Worth. There were also plans made to meet at the Agriculture Retailers Association Convention in Fort Worth in November to continue working on TAIA plans for 2006.

Before and after the Summer Meeting, many members were able to take time to enjoy golf, jet skis, boating and all the great facilities offered in the area. Many of the ladies enjoyed time at the antique shops in Montgomery, craft shops in Spring, and the mall at The Woodlands.

TAIA would like to thank all the sponsors and supporters who made this meeting possible. There is no registration fee for the Summer Meeting; it is totally funded by the sponsors and supporters.

President's Comments

I hope everyone who attended the Summer Meeting had an enjoyable time. The Regional Meetings are winding down for 2005, and they have again had great topics and speakers. I hope many of you are making plans to attend the ARA Conference in November and special Planning Meeting that will be held at the ARA Conference. This will be a great opportunity to finalize our January conference plans.

Once again TAIA and its members were able to shape regulation changes proposed by the Texas Department of Agriculture (TDA). Your comments on the Texas Department of Agriculture's proposed regulation changes have made the TDA rethink the changes to the product registration section. I was informed by TDA that they are not going forward with the portion of the proposed regulation changes on product registration. TDA had also proposed changes to the pesticide applicator and dealer pesticide license that would not have any effect on a current license. The change would make new a new license renew on its anniversary date instead of on a date set by law. TAIA and your comments can make a difference, and we proved that once again.

Again this quarter we have added new members to TAIA and will slightly exceed our 2004 membership of 454. If all of the 2004 members would have renewed, our membership would have well exceeded our 2005 goal of 500. Keep up the good work of recruiting new members and ask our old members to rejoin in 2006.

Thank you,

Donnie Dippel
